The first premium for tobacco was $8.00. For corn the first premium was $1.00; second premium, $2.00.

Before the largest audience of the Institute F. D. Coburn, of Topeka, Kansas, secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture, talked for more than an hour this morning at the city hall on the subject of "Alfalfa."

Mr. Coburn's address was the only one in the morning session. This afternoon, the last session of the Institute is being held at the city hall. Prof. R. M. Allen, of the experiment station at Lexington, Ky., is speaking on the subject of "Dairying in Kentucky." J. G. Hooper and E. S. Good also will speak.

In the first address he has made in Kentucky, Mr. F. D. Coburn handled the subject of "Alfalfa" on which he has achieved considerable reputation, before an attentive audience this morning. His talk, for so he pleased to name his address, was not an oration, but a plain statement of facts about alfalfa, and what it meant to other states as a serious crop. He did not state positively what alfalfa would do in Kentucky. He merely stated facts and allowed his audience to draw conclusions.

It was evident that he thought alfalfa is a crop that will increase the wealth of the state. He said the farmer who travels the single road of tobacco or wheat or any exclusive crop, is headed and will arrive at the poor house. Our land cannot stand continuous use with one crop. As a remedy for that fact he said that alfalfa beyond a doubt had been a most successful renovator of the soil in his state and under states with which he is familiar. Alfalfa is one of the few crops which do not take nitrogen from the soil—one of the vital constituents of the soil for tobacco, corn or wheat. On the other hand it actually brings nitrogen in a large degree to the soil. Its roots by going deep into the soil, sometimes twenty-five feet, get nourishment which other plants cannot reach. Then these roots open the way for rain, fertilizers and other beneficial things to get into the soil.

Alfalfa is the finest forage crop. The yields are larger from three to five cuttings in one season, and it contains a larger amount of protein than any other grass. Protein is the element which makes the fat and milk. Alfalfa will grow anywhere that the soil is not too wet and the richer it is and the better the condition, the more will be the results. It is a crop which requires much attention and above all, the farmer should not become discouraged with the first, second or third year's success. One acre of alfalfa contains as much food value for cattle as three of red clover or alone of timothy.

He had with him and showed to the audience, a sample of alfalfa and alfalfa seed. It was the fifth cutting this year and he asked if that would not make their cows' mouths water. The leaves, he said, are as rich as wheat bran, but they must be harvested and handled carefully to be saved. "Sons of Bess" could not raise alfalfa. Nor could "Fugitives from Labor." It should be sown on freshly plowed ground. Be careful to get good seed, get them tested at the state experiment station free, and get seeds grown in the same latitude as this end of the state.

From 15 to 20 pounds of seed should be used to the acre. It is a delicate plant when it first comes up and for the first year or two should be attended to carefully. It would be well to precede it by a crop of potatoes. Frequent mowing is helpful and the liberal use of the disc harrow is advised. The crops are close together and it should be cut as soon as it begins to bloom. The sun is not, he said, the best thing to use too freely in curing any kind of forage. And it can do a lot of damage to alfalfa. It should be gotten under cover immediately after curing and those animals which chew the cud, will be injured if they graze on the uncut fields. It is a splendid food for hogs and horses. Especially is it good for breeding hogs. Cattle fed on alfalfa took the first prizes at Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. Coburn gave figures on the field of ten acres in one season returned $1,184. That was for the seed, straw and all. He closed by commending particularly a booklet issued by Commissioner Vreeland on the subject of alfalfa.

Friday Afternoon. Three lectures were given Friday afternoon. They were all interesting and highly instructive.

Prof. G. I. Christie, of Lafayette, Ind., spoke on "Seed Corn Selection," and gave his audience many new ideas. He said that the yield to the acre in Kentucky is too low for corn, and that the profits of the crop ran little over the cost of production. Our farmers should get seed corn adapted to their soils and as a means of ascertaining that fact, he suggested that each county have an experiment tract on which the different varieties grown in the county could be tested and the one best suited to that soil, found.

Prof. Christie had several charts to illustrate his talk. They were enlarged photographs of the whole ears of corn, of split ears of grain and growing stalks. As a means of finding the value of the seed, he said a few from an ear of corn could be germinated. That would show the quality of the bushel. He said a perfect ear of corn was nearly the same size at both ends, and that the grains in the middle of the ear would produce the largest and best ears. Seed corn should be shelled by hand and the few grains on the tip and butt should not be used. Before putting the seed in the planter the deep grains should be separated from the shallow grains, which would make the planter work better and the crop more uniform. In shelling the corn, it would be easy to separate the different size of grains.

Prof. W. L. Goss, of the Washington department, spoke next and had "Seed Adulteration" as his subject. Just as Professor Allen in the morning showed the dangers and fraud of adulteration in food stuffs so all Prof. Goss showed the dangers and frauds of seed adulteration. He said there were three kinds of adulterants used. They are, crushed quartz, poor seed, and totally different seeds which look alike, are mixed and sold for the pure article. He said we get enormous quantities from Europe on a large per centum of European seeds are adulterated with the worst kinds of weed seeds. Also that the stringent seed laws of Europe re-

IS MRS. O. BOWYER, WHO CONDUCTS BOARDING HOUSE.

Caught Up With Boarder, Seized Her Trunks and Is Holding Them for Debt.

Mrs. O. Bowyer, manager of a boarding house at Twelfth and Jefferson streets, arrested a boarder, who tried to beat her out of a board bill, seized her trunks and luggage and carried them to the sheriff's office.

The woman owed one month's board. She asked Mrs. Bowyer to go to the city and buy her some velvet. Mrs. Bowyer did and on returning found her roomer's key on the floor and all the luggage and the occupant gone.

Hitching to her wagon she went after the sheriff, sealed him in her huggy and started on her search. She caught the woman on the street, made her surrender her luggage and then drove to the sheriff's office where she deposited the trunks.

The woman agreed to pay each week in installments and the luggage is being held at the sheriff's office.

BLOODY REVENGE OF CAR REPAIRER

Assaults Inspector at Early Hour This Morning.

Ed Frieis Knocked Down and Beaten by Man Whom He Discharged Thursday.

ASSAILANT MAKES ESCAPE.

Ed Frieis, of Mechanicsburg a car inspector employed at night in the local Illinois Central shop yards, was attacked last night by a man whom he had caused to be discharged, and is lying at his home suffering from wounds inflicted with some blunt instrument thought to have been brass knuckles. He is not seriously injured, but will be disabled for some time.

Frieis has a force of men under him, and two nights ago Sam Vinson reported in an intoxicated condition. Frieis sent him home and reported the incident to his superiors. Immediately Vinson received his discharge.

At 1 o'clock this morning, just before the Cairo freight pulled out of the yards, Frieis was making an inspection of the cars. He was in the middle of the train when some one stepped out from behind a car and attacked him.

Frieis was unarmed and taken by surprise. No one was near to aid him and the man whom Frieis says he recognized as Vinson, continued his assault.

The inspector was first struck on the cheek with sufficient force to fell him. He arose and received a blow on the right side of his head. The last instrument cut to the skull. Several more blows were dealt the inspector before his assailant stopped.

Escape was effected on the Cairo train which pulled out before Frieis could report the matter.

Special Policeman Dick Tolbert was called out of his bed at 2 o'clock but was unable to do anything more than telegraph ahead to intercept the fugitive. At Cairo he could not be found.

Frieis appeared at the police station this morning and swore out a warrant against Vinson charging malicious assault with intent to kill. He charges that brass knuckles were used.

ATTACK ON A WOMAN IS COSTLY. Steamship Company Must Pay Her $15,000 and Man Gets Life.

Buffalo, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Della B. Sweeting of Jackson, Mich., was given a verdict for $15,000 by a jury in the federal court at Lockport tonight against the passenger steamer Western States of the Detroit and Buffalo line as damages for an assault by Joseph Corwin, an officer on the boat. The assault was committed while Mrs. Sweeting was a passenger on the steamer. Corwin was convicted of the crime and is now serving a life sentence in the Michigan state prison.

Negro Hanging to Tree. Lexington, Oct. 20.—A negro was found hanging to a tree on the lawn of Horace Coleman, nine miles from Lexington this morning. The indications are that he was lynched, but no one in the neighborhood appears to know him, or have any knowledge of the crime.

DOUBLE TRACK Will Be Laid on Broadway From Fifth to Fourth.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon granted the Paducah Traction company the privilege of tearing up Broadway from Fifth street to Fourth street for double tracking, the company to relay the square with Puritan black brick. The franchise for the traction company gives it power to double track on Broadway where it is paved, and last year it doubled track from Ninth street to Fifth street. This completes the double track from the river to Ninth street. The curve leading into North Fourth street from Broadway will be taken up.

CLASS

ADMITTED TO MEMBERSHIP IN COLORED CONFERENCE.

Board of Finance Makes Report of Funds on Hand—Assignment of Ministers.

The venerable Bishop Isaac Lane gave some wholesome truths for the guidance of ministers everywhere in addressing a class of young ministers, just admitted to full membership in the colored conference in session at Massy's Chapel in this city. The class is composed of D. H. Anderson, C. L. Howard, H. S. McCutley and L. R. Haynes.

The joint board of finance made a partial report showing a total of Conference claims amounting to $1,425 have been raised. Of this amount $896.80 goes to the general fund and $126 goes to the contingent fund.

The board of finance is composed of the Rev. J. W. McClure, Trenton; Prof. J. W. Bromagh, Madisonville; Minor Thomas, Hopkinsville; the Rev. J. M. Lawrence, Fulton; and the Rev. P. W. Garrett, Dawson. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the appointments, which will not be read before Sunday night.

A remarkable example of the progress of the negro race is found in the personnel of the Conference. Some are old men who came up from slavery and have done great work for their race. Of this class Bishop Lane stands in the lead. Some of the oldest men now P. S. Smith, J. W. Kell, F. P. Taylor, M. I. Warfield, P. A. Samples, I. Jones, G. W. Lander and G. H. Hubbard. Of those young men received a generation or so from slavery, the most prominent in conference are T. J. Moppins, J. W. Bromagh, D. H. Anderson, N. H. Howard, G. C. Parker and others.

NEW OYSTERS

LOCAL SUPPLY QUICKLY EXHAUSTED.

Retail Dealers Anticipate Trouble in Meeting Demand All This Winter.

The press despatches stating that the oyster crop this year would be short, are true so far as the local dealers know. The last cold snap we had, gave an impulse to the demand for oysters that quickly exhausted the supply on hand and efforts to replenish from the wholesalers were all but fruitless. As soon as the full winter demand sets in the local dealers expect difficulty in keeping supplied. As yet there is no change in prices over last year.

BED MEN'S MEMORIAL.

Brewer said it would be necessary to have a more complete record of the case before passing upon it. This decision will have the effect of giving the woman a respite of at least two or three months. She was to have been hanged on the 26th instant.

"CRIPPLES' UNION" IS FORMED.

Switchtenders, Legless or Armless, Seek Better Wages and Hours.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 20.—The Switchtenders' Union, the first organization of this class of railroad employees in the country, was perfected last night at a largely attended meeting at 10 South Clark street. The new union starts out with a membership of nearly 600. A unique feature of the organization, which has gained for it the facetious though not unkindly intended sobriquet of the "Cripples' Union," is the fact that the larger percentage of the members are minus a leg or an arm, or have suffered some other serious bodily injury while employed in various capacities for railroads.

FIND LOST GIRL IN WOLF'S DEN.

Child Unharmed After Two Days' Absence—Plays With "Doggies."

Menominee, Mich., Oct. 20.—After being lost for two days, 4-year-old Margaret Schwelzcock, daughter of a wealthy farmer, was found unharmed in a wolf's den playing with a litter of wolf pups. She seemed perfectly contented. The child scolded her rescuers for scaring away the nice little "doggies" with which she had been playing. She said that she had not been cold or hungry, as she had picked up some nuts.

With his skull crushed by a blow with a pick Will Blackman, colored, lies at the point of death at his home on Plunkett Hill, a few squares from where he was attacked this afternoon by Henry Reynolds, another negro. It is said he will die.

Reynolds came down into the 15 foot ditch where a sewer trench in district, No. 2, is being excavated. He wanted to use Blackman's tools, and abused the latter, who resented it. Reynolds secured a pick, used it in digging, and struck Blackman in the head. His skull was crushed. Reynolds is at large.

WEATHER — Partly Cloudy and warmer tonight. Sunday mild followed by much colder Sunday night or Monday. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 70 and the lowest 60, day was 50.

PURDY FOUGHT WITH JUDGE

As the result of a chain of circumstances following a fine in the police court at Kuttawa, Dr. A. D. Purdy, one of the best known physicians in this section, is lying at his home in that town with a bullet wound in his brain, and Marshal W. H. McCollum, who has more than one victim to the credit of his aim, is his assailant.

The shooting took place yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock in front of the hotel, when Marshal McCollum went to arrest Dr. Purdy for assaulting D. B. Green, judge of the police court. The bullet from McCollum's revolver entered Dr. Purdy's forehead and came out his skull about three inches away. Surgeons operated on the wound, but the result is still in doubt.

Marshal McCollum claims that Dr. Purdy made a threatening gesture when told he was under arrest.

Dr. Purdy was fined a short time ago in Judge Green's court and resented the action. It is claimed he threatened personal satisfaction, and he met Judge Green for the first time yesterday afternoon at the time yesterday after the court episode. An altercation ensued and Dr. Purdy struck Judge Green in the face, cutting his nose.

A warrant was sworn out for Dr. Purdy and placed in the hands of Marshal McCollum. The latter went immediately to serve it about twenty minutes after the fight, and met Dr. Purdy in front of the hotel. He placed his hand on Dr. Purdy's shoulder and told the doctor he was under arrest. Then, McCollum said, Dr. Purdy made a motion toward his hip pocket and, thinking his life was in danger, he drew his own revolver and fired, the muzzle of the gun being close to the victim's head. Marshal Purdy killed Louis Buford, a negro desperado from Paducah who broke jail about three years ago.

Dr. Purdy is the father of Arch K. Purdy, bookkeeper for Abram L. Well & Co.

Dr. J. G. Brooks who went down at 1:20 o'clock this morning to operate, returned at 9:30 o'clock. "I took out several shattered bits of bone and one piece of the bullet which had chipped off and curled up like a fling from a steel lathe," Dr. Brooks said. "The brain oozed out of the wound. I dressed the wound carefully and left the patient in a semi-conscious condition. He recognized me when I left."

McCollum's Record.

McCollum besides killing Louis Buford shot and killed a woman and daughter years ago. The woman shot at him from her house when he started to serve papers on her. He returned the fire and killed her.

Some time later the daughter sent for McCollum to make friends with him. She asked for a conference in the cemetery over the grave of her mother. McCollum went. The woman lay in hiding and when nearly upon her place of concealment she stepped out, pointed a pistol at the policeman and shot. McCollum pulled his pistol and killed her.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Tonight—Jane Kennark, in "The Toast of the Town."

Beginning Monday night and all of week, "The DePew-Hurdett Stock company," with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. Ladies free Monday night under the usual conditions.

Jane Kennark Tonight.

The theater-goers of Paducah have a treat in store for them tonight when Miss Jane Kennark, one of the most popular of actresses, presents Clyde Fitch's play, "The Toast of the Town." Undoubtedly Miss Kennark has scored one of the greatest successes of her career. A triumph such as she has enjoyed means of course that she was provided with a great role and a great play. One critic described "The Toast of the Town" as being "a play of thrills and tears, love and laughter." It was expected that Mr. Fitch would write a play for Miss Kennark which will be something more than a comedy of man-ny bold admission.

The Messrs. DePew and Hurdett enjoy enviable reputations in the theatrical world. It is the first stock company to appear in Paducah this season.

Thomas E. DePew, who heads the organization, has lately come into prominence as a comedian of the new school, for whom dramatic critics predict a prosperous career. His "Solomon Moses" in "The Power of Truth" is said to be one of the best impersonations ever given on the stage.

A novelty in the way of vaudeville is promised in the act of Miss Minnie DePew, who is, according to the company's press agent, the peer of any lady luck-wing dancer now before the public. She holds the medal that proclaims her the champion of the south. The test was so close that the judges went below the stage, where the sound of the heel and foot taps could be heard more distinctly ners, for the reason that Miss Kennark is an actress whose abilities are not cramped and confined, and do not run in a single groove. She is a comedienne of delicacy and charm, and yet capable of sounding the deepest emotions of the human heart. The supporting company is of top-notch excellence and includes Carl Anthony, Guy Durrell, Lella Vane, Bertha Livingston and Maurice W. Stewart.

Thomas E. DePew, the versatile comedian with "DePew Hurdett Stock company," at The Kentucky Monday night and balance of week. Ladies free Monday night when accompanied by a person holding a paid 50 cent ticket if purchased before 5 p. m. Monday.

Blanche Bates Coming.

Manager Roberts has booked Blanche Bates in "The Girl From the Golden West" for April 8. The show is now enjoying a double season run in New York, having scored one of the biggest successes in years.

Stock Next Week.

At the Kentucky theater Monday night the DePew-Hurdett Stock company will open in "The Power of Truth," the first bill of their week's repertoire to be given here. Ladies will be admitted free if accompanied

She will positively appear at every performance.

"Brigadier Gerard."

"Brigadier Gerard," recently produced in Chicago, is brilliant. It is the best romantic comedy that has been written since "Prisoner of Zenda." Gerard himself is a central figure that wins instant liking. He is a hussar who has been through countless battles in Spain, is absolutely devoid of fear, is a swordsman who has but two equals in all the French army, is a fellow handsome as a picture, and as glib as he is brave.

Conan Doyle has drawn him with exceptional effectiveness.

Gerard comes to join the Hussars of Conflans, his own company of Comberont having been wiped almost entirely out of existence. The soldiers who receive him into the new company are piqued at his arrival, and, hearing of his having told wild tales of his adventures, they lead him on by flattery and they teke his vanity until he becomes their laughing stock. Gen. Caulaincourt, one of

Woman's Relief

Cardui Gave Relief

Mount Vernon, Ga., Feb. 4, 1906.

I was troubled with female disease for nine (9) years. The doctors first called it "nervous prostration," then "change of life," and finally "catarrh of the womb," but no matter what they called it, they could give me no relief. At last I decided to take Wine of Cardui. I have now taken three (3) bottles and can say that my health is better than it has been in nine years. Before I began to take Cardui I could not eat anything, could hardly sleep, my back and hips would ache, and then I would be nervous and I was troubled with the whites. Once a month I would have to go to bed for two or three days. Since taking Cardui I do not have to stay in bed more than half a day, and all my troubles have gone. I have praised Cardui to all my friends, and shall continue to do so. I wish every suffering lady would try it.

If everybody comes here for Shoes, everybody will wear good Shoes.

Napoleon's faithful, sends Gerard on the mission of "recovering the papers the emperor desires. He is to visit the countess de Rognelure in Paris. Gerard has loved the countess for two years and loves gladly.

Talleyrand's spies have tracked the countess, however, and before Gerard sees her they secure possession of the papers. Gerard, by the aid of the countess, turns the tables.

It is a play compactly made, brilliant in dialogue and with every scene rightly in place and leading to a climax that is of distinct effectiveness.

Mr. Bellows has found a role which fits him down to the ground. He is a romantic actor par excellence.

NEW YORK THEATERS.

New York, Oct. 20.—The big hit of this week in New York has been scored by Richard Carle in "The Spring Chicken," at Italy's theater. This is an Americanized version of a British farcical comedy, the main idea of which was taken from a French farce. Several clever men, including Mr. Carle himself, have at different times been concerned in refashioning the piece, with the result that it is at this time a lively and diverting entertainment which might be described in spots as "hot stuff." In fact, suggestiveness is one of the leading features of the show.

Miss Virginia Harned's new play, called "The Love Letter," adapted by Ferdinand Gottschalk from the French of Sardon, is not altogether worthy of the greatness of its author. The second husband of the heroine finds an ardent epistle addressed to his wife, and there is a great row about it until in the end it is shown that the letter was written by madame's first husband, before she divorced him and when he had a perfect right to address her in terms of endearment. There isn't very much to this, the reader will observe. Indeed, the impression left upon the mind by "The Love Letter" is of thinness and lack of vitality. Miss Harned's acting is, of course, agreeable and intelligent.

Miss Rose Stahl, in "The Chorus Lady," will on Monday night make still another move on the theatrical checker-board, going from the Garrick to the Hackett theater, where in all probability she will remain undisturbed for some time to come. Miss Stahl began weekly enough at the Savoy theater, where the first week's receipts were so light that the management began casting about for another attraction. But the box office showed a gradual and steady increase from night to night and Miss Stahl's director presently found himself engaged in the rather difficult task of extending her engagement. Failures at the Hackett theater finally made an opening and "The Chorus Lady" show.

Miss Eleanor Robson's engagement at the Liberty theater has started off most auspiciously with the presentation of Israel Zangwill's "Nurse Marjorie." The dialogue is quite the most brilliant example yet shown of this author's light and fertile fancy, and the sentimental passages ring with truth and tenderness. Miss Robson could not possibly have been better fitted.

with its quaint slang is at peace.

In "The Rose of the Rancho," which is to be the next offering at the Belasco theater, the romantic atmosphere of the far west so charmingly set forth in "The Girl of the Golden West," is preserved, although there is no similarity in theme, characterization or treatment. Nor will the play depend in any measure upon the presence of a star actor or actress. The author-manager has organized a special cast that is of quite uncommon worth, including Charles Richman, Frances Starr, Frank Losee, Hamilton Revelle, J. H. Benrimo and others, whose names are familiar all over America.

Henry Arthur Jones' immensely successful play, "The Hypocrites," will run clear through the season at the Hudson theater.

Blanche Ring has "caught on" at the New York theater in a handsome revival of "Miss Dolly Dollars." Many of the spectators consider Miss Ring superior to Lulu Glaser in the principal part in this piece.

Mrs. Langtry has drawn immense audiences thus far in her stay at the Keith-Proctor Fifth Avenue theater. Most of the people, moreover, are obviously strangers to vaudeville entertainments, and thus a new clientele is being built up. That's what makes Mrs. Langtry a cheap attraction at $2,500 a week salary.

—Leander Richardson.

Build up an income for later years by connecting yourself with this splendid institution. Experience in Life Insurance not necessary. If you are a hustler, honest and sober, you will lose nothing by investigation and it might be a turning point in your business history, which would finally put you on "easy street."

At the first session of the World's W. C. T. U. meeting in Boston yesterday, a resolution was adopted asking President Roosevelt and Secretary Root to renew the suggestion once made by the president and the late Secretary Hay, that Great Britain and the United States join in presenting the other nations a treaty forbidding the sale of opium or intoxicating liquors to uncivilized nations.

The Week In Society.

THE WIND-UP OF THE SEASON.

The leaves are thinning on the bough
And one by one are falling.
The birds are speeding southward
now.
And mate to mate is calling.

Dan Cupid hurries, full of hope,
His meshes coiling, throwing;
No platonian ever swung a rope
With half the skill he's showing.

The Lariat of Love is spun
Of silken threads enduring,
And ere they sense it, two are one
In bonds that are aluring.

Wise Cupid, warned of autumn's change,
Now hastens, with good reason,
The wind-up on the Bow Range—
The wind-up of the season.

—Early Hooker Eaton, in Harper's Weekly.

The younger society boys gave a dance at the Knights of Pythias hall last evening. It was an enjoyable affair with fifteen couples present. Mrs.
Jetta Hobson was the chaperon. The German was danced during the evening and was led by Mr. John Brooks.

Complimentary Breakfast.

Mr. Douglas Bagby's breakfast to Miss Lucie Bruen, of Webb City, Mo., was an especially smart affair as well as a clever play on the guest of honor's name. The two tables were artistically decorated with autumn leaves and forming the center-piece of each were miniature bears. The menu cards were also in brain designs and the elaborate course intercourse included many varieties of the bear family attractively served.

A pretty 6 o'clock dinner was given on Thursday evening by Mr. Frank Davis at his home on Kentucky ave-

Missouri. The table was charmingly decorated with autumn flowers. Covers were laid for eight and included:

farwell compliment to Mrs. Ada Van guest of Mrs. Marble, who returned home this week. There were three tables of guests and refreshments were served after the game.

Dinner Party to Miss Bruen.

Mr. Charles Cox was the host at a pretty dinner party on Monday evening at his home on Fountain avenue
complementary to Miss Lucie Bruen most attractive in its setting and effect and the place cards were souvenir post-cards of pretty girls. Mr.

Cox's guests were: Miss Bruen, Miss Marjorie Scott, Miss Frances Wallace, Mr. Edwin Paxton Dr. Walter Iverson.

mother Mrs. M. K. Scott, on North Fourth street. Miss Lucie Bruen, of Webb City, Mo., the guest of Miss Marjorie Scott, was the guest of honor. It was a pretty club affair.

prize. An attractive two-course luncheon was served after the game.
There were only the four club tables present.

Matinee Musical Club.

An attractive program was rendered at the first open meeting of the Matlaca Musical club for the season in the parlors of the Tagle's Home, on Broadway. Although the club expects to pursue an especial line of work in musical study this year the first program was miscellaneous in character. Miss Alice Compton gave a delightful talk on "The Progress of the Club." The musical program was charmingly filled by: Mrs. David Flournoy, Miss Isabel Mohan, Miss Mayme Dreyfuss.

At the business session held before the regular meeting it was decided to make the coming of Mrs. Sapinsky, of Louisville, in November an invitational open night recital. It is hoped to secure Temple Israel for the occasion. It will be a delightful musical event.

Stomach Distress is A Danger Signal

Gas on the stomach, belchings, pains and weakening perspirations resulting shortly after eating are the signs nature provides as stomach warnings.

The most general and only cure for such ailments is to promptly cleanse the bowels. If the proper physic is taken, relief is almost immediate, but because the proper physic is not taken, chronic cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and many other ailments that are directly due to these disorders are set up.

The physics usually taken—salts, pills, tablets, etc., do cleanse the bowels but not without causing a great loss of strength. The bowels cannot then perform their functions without another physio and continually a stronger drug is required, until a dangerous "pill habit" has been formed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

has a strengthening influence upon the bowels and intestines. It is pleasant to take, does not weaken or gripe, and never establishes the dangerous habit which most other remedies do.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by all druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

Your money back if it don't benefit you.

placed for your winter coal the quicker it can be

MUNICIPAL ISSUE.

There can be but one issue in a municipal campaign in which no specific question of economics is raised, and in which officials are seeking re-election—the record of these officials. This is the situation in the councilmanic and aldermanic fight in Paducah, and the men whose names appear on the ticket posted at our masthead, stand pat on their records. The personnel of the opposing ticket cannot figure in a logical, fair thinking mind, unless that mind is disinterested with the record made up in the life of the present general council. Newspapers of all parties in the city have had nothing but encouragements and congratulations for the two boards since their organization, and yesterday and today their praises were sung in the news and editorial columns of every paper in Paducah. There is involved in this issue more than the mere rewarding of the individual members of the general council for faithful service. More work than glory is in an election to a council board. But citizens for the welfare of their city, when they have secured a general council composed of representative business men, who have made a clean record for progress and economy, should see to it, not only that an expression of encouragement is registered, but that the council is continued as long as it perseveres in good work. That is the way you do in your business, if you are successful. When an employee pleases you, you keep him. Another may promise as well, may be as intelligent, but may not prove as satisfactory. The same logic applies to city affairs, only in a greater degree. In a man's private business, when he employs a new assistant, he is there to direct the employee until the latter learns his work. Municipal business is an untold field to the new official and there is no one to guide him, whom he can trust. He has to deal with interests that have been dealing with the public for years and those interests have tried employees to attend to their end of the transactions. It requires the service of a year or more to thoroughly familiarize the councilman with his duties, and teach him to be wary of tricks. At the end of their first term the councilman and alderman are graduates in the municipal school. If they are honest and faithful their value to the municipality will be increased to an untold extent the second term. It is in the constant shifting of public sentiment that the city so often loses money and prestige. The professional politician in public office, while always making the best of every personal advantage for his own gain, keeps in touch with the public feeling and guides his conduct so as not to fall foul of any powerful influence. The members of the present general council have kept their eyes on duty all the while. They have cut down the tax rate, built streets and sidewalks, and gutters and sewers, drained pools, improved the lighting plant and protected the city's interests while promoting its healthfulness and appearance, and the people of Paducah are entitled to another two years of this beneficent administration.

It is fortunate that all differences between the delegates representing the upper and lower Ohio river were settled amicably in the Ohio Valley convention at Portsmouth. It has become the custom in America for delegates to anything to consider themselves as representing their own little sections, and to strive in every way to secure their share of the benefits, regardless of the best interests of all concerned. Having got their share "of the swag," they can go home to their constituents and say, "see what we have brought you." But it is a simple matter of common sense to begin the improvements at the mouth of the Ohio river and go up stream, and to begin at the mouths of the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers. The point is this: If the improvements are made first in the upper river, only that small portion of the river population "voting above the improvement" can enjoy it, while if it is made in the lower river the whole trade from month to month is benefited. Then, too, the importance of the Ohio river trade increases toward the Mississippi. We have talked "Pittsburg to Cairo" so long that we have come to look on that as the natural and obvious course of the improvements, whereas it should be Cairo to Pittsburg. By all means begin the work at the lower end of the river where it will do the most good and where we may get the benefit of it.

Henry Watterson's prediction two years back that the "pert paragraph must go" is not borne out by the sudden advent of a daily string of them in his paper. —Milwaukee Sentinel.
A Dear! Dear! How funny this reads. The "paragraph" was born in these columns and made them its abode for seventy-six years—that is, since the advent of George D. Prentice, its father. Mr. Watterson spoke of the "pert" paragraph, the "fool" paragraph, not the paragraph of wit, wisdom and humor. —Courier-Journal.
Neither did the Sentinel.

Many Zionist converts at a recent Dowle meeting, it is claimed, received the "gift of tongues," and spoke in strange languages. That miracle is not beyond belief. Ever since Dowle instituted his Zion movement he has impressed it on the converts from the beginning that money talks. In Zion, and its language is universal. He is only fortunate that the old members of Zion did not receive the "gift of tongues" when they were talking about him while he was in Mexico.

BETTING BECOMES LIVELY.

Three to One on Hughes Still Prevailing New York Odds.

New York, Oct. 20.—Betting on the election became more brisk and some large wagers were made at 3 to 1 on Hughes for the governorship. Odds of 1 to 2 were made that Hughes will carry Greater New York. Usually the Democratic candidate in Greater New York is 4 or 5 to 1 favorite.

sulted in that country sending us the seed they cannot sell at home. The beautiful blue grass from which Kentucky is so famous, is adulterated largely and the customer cannot tell whether he is getting the pure article or not.

Truck Gardening.

Henry S. Berry, of Owensboro, Ky., delivered a lecture on "Truck Gardening" which it would have heartened every McCracken county farmer to have heard. He traced the history of truck gardening, and told of its modern proportions. The first point in truck gardening is earliness on the market with your stock. People will pay well for early vegetables. Wet soil is not good for truck raising. The richer the soil the faster vegetables will grow, and the faster they grow the more tender they are and the more palatable.

Potato growing has been revolutionized by the new second crop in the same season. This is done by planting the second crop from the seeds obtained from the first crop. The potatoes from the second crop are much better than the first crop. Attention should be paid to the market and each grower should specialize on those few vegetables, berries or fruits that his soil will best grow. He said that now the south feeds the north in the spring, and the north feeds the south in the fall.

How the Blood Flow Affects Health.

Few people appreciate the necessity of keeping the blood in every way in good condition if they would have good health.

There are two factors in disease, which, by an endless variety of changes and combinations define every departure from normal conditions.

There are the BLOOD and the NERVES. They sustain life, and END IT.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow or had consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

tight the blood flow, and they all leave.

This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months it is necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.

Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

My office hours are from 8 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

with Durnovo, and"—
He turned toward the half breed, pausing.

"And Durnovo is the man I want," weighing each word.

Durnovo's right hand was in his jacket pocket. Seeing Meredith's proffered invitation, he slowly withdrew it and shook hands.

The flash of hatred was still in his eyes when Jack Meredith turned upon him with aggravating courtesy. The pleasant, half cynical glance wandered from Durnovo's dark face very deliberately down to his jacket pocket, where the stock of a revolver was imperfectly concealed.

"We were getting anxious about you," he explained, "feeling that you did not come back. Of course, we knew that you were capable of taking care of yourself."

He was still looking innocently at that telltale jacket pocket, and Durnovo, following the direction of his glance, hastily thrust his hand into it. "But one can never tell with a treacherous climate like this what a day may bring forth. However, I am glad to find you looking so very fit."

Victor Durnovo gave an awkward little laugh, extremely conscious of the factory clothes.

"Oh, yes; I'm all right," he said. "I was going to start this evening."

The girl stood behind them, with a flush slowly fading from her face. There were some women who become suddenly beautiful, by the glory of a beautiful thought, not by the exaltation of a lofty virtue, but by the more practical human flash. Jack Meredith, when he took his eyes from Durnovo's, glancing at Jocelyn, suddenly became aware of the presence of a beautiful woman.

The crisis was past, and, if Jack knew it, so also did Jocelyn. She knew that the imperishable gentleness of the Englishman had conveyed to the more passionate West Indian the simple, downright fact that in a lady's drawing room there was to be no raised voice, no holding fingers, no flash of fiery eyes.

"Yes," he said; "that will suit me splendidly. We will travel together."

He turned to Jocelyn.

"I hear your brother is away?"

"Yes, for a few days. He has gone up the coast."

Then there was a silence. They both paused, helping each other as if by prearrangement, and Victor Durnovo suddenly felt that he must go. He rose and picked up the whip which he had dropped on the matting. There was no help for it—the muted wills of these two people were too strong for him.

Jack Meredith passed out of the veranda with him, murmuring something about giving him a leg up. While they were walking round the house Victor Durnovo made one of those hideous mistakes which one remembers all through life with a sudden rush of warm shame and self contempt. The very thing that was uppermost in his

"Enter, young man," he said dramatically.

and to be avoided suddenly bubbled to his lips, almost, it would seem, in defiance of his own will.

"What about the small—the small?" he asked.

"We have got it under," replied Jack quietly. "We had a very bad time for three days, but we got all the cases isolated and prevented it from spreading. Of course we could do little or nothing to save them; they died."

Durnovo had the air of a whipped dog. His mind was a blank. He simply had nothing to say. The humiliation of utter self contempt was his.

"You need not be afraid to come back now," Jack Meredith went on, with a strange refinement of cruelty.

And that was all he ever said about it.

"Will it be convenient for you to meet me on the bench at 4 o'clock this afternoon?" he asked when Durnovo was in the saddle.

"Yes."

"All right; 4 o'clock."

He turned and deliberately went back to the bungalow.

MUNICIPAL DEAL SWELLED THE SUM

And Made Abnormal Showing Same Week Last Year.

Bank Clearings This Week Would Exceed Were It Not for This.

MERCHANTS ARE OPTIMISTIC

Bank Clearings . . . $ 721,070
Same last year . . . 1,231,105

Decrease . . . . . $ 500,216

The decrease in bank clearings from the same week of last year is not so startling when it is remembered that at that time, the public utilities in the city changed hands in a deal involving $600,000. That amount subtracted from the total will give the normal clearings for the week, making it, $631,195. In that case, the clearings this week would exceed the clearings for the same week of last year by $93,784.

The week has been uneventful in the financial and business world. The merchants report the fall trade steady and large, October being one of the best months. The traction company will make further improvements along Broadway by double tracking, and the other public improvement with the building operations, railroad shops, rivers and manufacturing concerns, complete the circle of prosperity and activity in the city.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20.—The bankers' committee report on the plan for currency reform was referred to a committee to be appointed by the executive council which shall confer with the New York chamber of commerce committee and submit a plan for the enactment into law by congress. The plan as presented provides for the appointment of a non-partisan currency commission of seven by the president, to be confirmed by the senate, the controller of currency to be a member, that credit or clearance currency may be issued by any national bank or a majority of national banks of any city upon application to the commission, in any amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the bond secured circulation outstanding. The provision is made for an such currency, regulating its issue and retirement.

Mt. Vernon	9.1	0.3	fall
Paducah	10.3	0.3	fall

The river is falling steadily. The gauge this morning registered a stage of 10.3, a fall of 0.3 in 24 hours. Business at the wharf was quiet with few arrivals and departures.

The Georgia Lee was late arriving from Memphis yesterday, being a day from Memphis yesterday. It being 11:30 last night before the freight was handled and the boat left for Cincinnati. For an up trip, the Georgia Lee had a good trip.

While the railroads are struggling with the problem of car shortage, the boats are having their own troubles with the barge supply. The demand for barges, especially by the tile boats, is far beyond the supply. The boats that own their own barges are finding their supply insufficient while the boats that rent their barges, are having the number of trips that might be made, cut down because they cannot secure barges. At Joppa the situation is becoming acute as the ties cannot be handled as fast as the towboats bring them in, and that has caused a large number of barges to be tied up filled with ties. Two towboats spend their time exclusively at Joppa handling the barges, as a switch engine does with cars. In the railroad yards, hundreds of cars are loaded each week there for shipment north. It would be a mint for Paducah to have that business but she is on the wrong side of the river.

The Bernice arrived from the Tennessee river last night and probably will go to Evansville to try to get barges. The scarcity on the river of barges is handicapping the independent towboats.

The Henry Harley came in from Evansville yesterday. The Dunbar will arrive sometime today. The Buttorff will arrive Sunday night and leave Monday at noon for Clarksville.

A new way of handling smokestacks has been devised on the Fred Hartweg. The upper parts are suspended in the air on light trestles

ON LOWER RIVER WORK WILL BEGIN

Paducah And Evansville Delegates Win Fight.

Ohio Valley Improvement Convention Ends in Harmony After the Struggle.

SAUNDERS FOWLER AN OFFICER

Mr. S. A. Fowler has returned from the Ohio Valley Improvement association convention at Portsmouth, O., where a resolution giving the lower Ohio river preference in the future improvements by the government was adopted. On his face such a resolution would never have gone through the convention without determined work on the part of the delegates from the lower section of the river. For the largest and most powerful interests on the Ohio are located between Louisville and Pittsburg.

In view of the fact that most of the improvements on the river in the past had been made on the upper Ohio, the delegates from Paducah, backed up by Col. Posey, of Evansville, fought for the resolution and with success. When the work is started, locks and dams will be built at Mount City, which will give a 5-foot stage all the year 'round from that point to Cairo. In addition it will make the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers accessible in those months usually of low water.

Mr. Fowler was elected one of the vice-presidents of the O. V. I. A. and was down on the program for a speech in the convention. The convention was the most largely attended in the history of the association. In the Portsmouth, O., Times, among a number of caricature sketches made of the delegates in one of the hotel lobbies, there is one of Major Aschcraft who was in the Paducah delegation. Major Aschcraft and Mr. Henry Potter and wife stopped over in Louisville on the way back. Mr. Fowler and Capt. Mark Cole arrived home last night.

Work on the Joe Fowler and John Hopkins is advancing rapidly and they will be ready to go back in their old trade now occupied by the Henry Harley and Dunbar, in a short time.

Plans are being considered for the operating of a new line of freight and passenger steamboats from St. Louis to Chattanooga. The promoter is a St. Louis man having several boats running on the Tennessee river, and being connected with various companies engaged in the trade on the Mississippi, Ohio and Tennessee.

The boats would have to come from St. Louis by way of Cairo and Paducah. The trip is a long one, and some doubt is expressed as to the possibility of profitable competition with the railroads. The original intention was to run in connection with the Southern railway, and while this may ultimately be carried out, negotiations to that end have not so far been successful.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon not much change during the next 24 to 36 hours, with generally a falling tendency. At Paducah and Cairo will continue falling during the next several days.

The Tennessee at Florence will rise tonight and Saturday. At Johnsonville no material change during the next 24 hours.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, very little change during the next 24 to 36 hours.

PEAS FOR SHOT

To Keep Cool Thieves Out of Illinois Central Yards.

A shotgun patrol has been established in the local Illinois Central shop yards, and it will be a sorry experience to the first cool thief who comes within its limits. With a long barrel shotgun across his shoulders Dick Tolbert, special day policeman at the shops, walks about the long line of cars in the yards. The policeman uses peas instead of shot.

WATER CONTRACT TO BE VOTED ON AT THE NOVEMBER ELECTION

REPORT OF JOINT LIGHT AND WATER COMMITTEE ON NEW CONTRACT BETWEEN THE CITY OF PADUCAH AND THE PADUCAH WATER COMPANY.

Owing to the fact that the contract existing between the city of Paducah and the local water company for fire hydrants expires during the current month it was incumbent upon the general council to negotiate for such service covering the remaining period which the franchise of the water company still has to run, to-wit: eighteen years.

After several conferences between the joint light and water committee and the officers of the water company a scale of rates for fire hydrants was agreed upon by the committee and the water company. These rates have been embodied in a contract which will be submitted to the general council for such action as the wisdom of that body may determine. If the proposed contract is favorably acted upon by the general council, it must be submitted to the voters of the city at the next election and affirmatively ratified by not less than two-thirds of the vote then cast upon the question before a contract between the city and the water company can be finally executed.

It is therefore worth while for the voters of the city to carefully consider the terms of the proposed contract before casting their votes at the coming election, and if it appears that the proposed contract is to the advantage of the city, then to register their approval thereof upon their ballots.

In order that the voters may have an opportunity to become fully advised regarding the terms of the proposed contract a copy of the same is herewith submitted which reads as follows:

"Section 1. That the City of Paducah, Ky., agrees to rent and does hereby rent from Paducah Water company, its successors and assigns, four hundred and eleven (411) double nozzle fire hydrants now established in said city for a period of eighteen (18) years from the passage and final approval of this ordinance, after an election by the people as hereinafter provided. The annual rental for each of said fire hydrants, which the city of Paducah hereby agrees to pay for the first ten (10) years of said term, shall be twenty ($20.00) dollars, and the annual rental for the remaining eight (8) years shall be fifteen ($15.00) dollars, unless the said city shall sooner purchase water company's plant, with six (6) per cent interest upon deferred payments. The payments of said rentals shall be made as provided in the original ordinance contract.

"Section 2. All additional hydrants on extensions of mains that may be erected hereafter by the Paducah Water company, its successors or assigns, as provided in the original ordinance contract during the said eighteen years, shall be charged and paid for as provided in section one hereof; but at the expiration of ten (10) years from the time this ordinance shall have been finally approved as set out above, all the then fire hydrants shall be charged and paid for at the uniform rate as above provided and the contract therefor shall expire at the end of the eighteen years fixed in section one.

"Section 3. Before this ordinance shall become effective it shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city of Paducah, Ky., at the general election to be held in said city on the 6th day of November, 1906, the said vote to be taken in the manner and as provided by law for the submission of public questions to the voters of said city.

"Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from its passage approval and ratification by the qualified voters of the city of Paducah, Ky., and a written acceptance of its terms and conditions by the Paducah Water company filed with the clerk of the city of Paducah, Ky., within ten (10) days after the official certificate of its approval at the popular election."

At the present time the water company has installed for the use of the city 411 fire plugs, which under the old contract are rated and cost each year as follows:

150 fire plugs at $10.00 . . . $6,000.00
30 fire plugs at $30.00 . . . 900.00
231 fire plugs at $25.00 . . . 5,775.00

Total . . . . . $12,675.00

Under the proposed contract this same service would cost the city but $8,220.00 for each of the first ten years of the contract a saving upon the number of hydrants now installed of $4,455.00 per annum and for the ten year period a saving of $44,550.00.

For each of the last eight years which the franchise has to run, the cost for 411 hydrants would be $6,165, a saving to the city of $6,510 per annum or of $52,080 for the entire eight years of the franchise, making a total saving to the city between the existing contract and the proposed contract of $96,630.

There is nothing contained in the proposed contract changing the rights of the city or those of the water company under the original franchise. The city still retains the right to purchase the water company's plant at the expiration of each five year period in accordance with the terms of the original franchise.

This committee has also compared the rates contained in the proposed contract with those in effect in 127 other cities for the same class of service and finds the proposed rates lower than those paid by any of these cities. The approximate average cost per hydrant in the number of cities mentioned above is $48.

The rates referred to were submitted by the local water company and this committee assume that the figures are correct. The list of the cities with the rate paid in each is on file with this committee and anyone desiring to verify the figures contained therein may have the opportunity of doing so at any time.

It should also be borne in mind that until a new contract is entered into between the city and the water company, that the rates charged under the existing contract will maintain. The only alternatives offered to escape from the old rates are either to make a new contract or to discontinue the service, the latter, of course, being quite impossible.

Therefore this committee has no hesitation in recommending to the general council and to the voters of the city of Paducah that the proposed contract be ratified.

JOINT LIGHT AND WATER COMMITTEE.

More Heat at Less Cost

Perfect Control Over Fire

The fumes which ordinarily arise from the fuel and pass unburned up the chimney in other heaters are all consumed in the Wilson on account of the celebrated Hot Blast Down-Draft. With a given amount of fuel the Wilson will produce about twice the heat of any other heater. The dampers are so constructed on the Wilson that you have perfect control over the fire which can be regulated to throw out an enormous amount of heat in a short time, or the fire can be held at a moderate heat or by closing the dampers it can be held at a faint glow for a great length of time.

If you have a Wilson your rooms may be always kept at a healthful, even temperature.

ON PURE FOOD

R. M. ALLEN SPEAKS AT COURT HOUSE TO MERCHANTS.

Inspectors Will Come to Paducah and Violations of Law Will Be Punished.

R. M. Allen, secretary of the state pure food commission, spoke to the retail and wholesale grocers at the county court house last night on pure food and its regulations. There were many others present not directly connected with the trade.

Mr. Allen pointed out the advantages of selling pure food, and the result of the sale of impure food. He stated that many Paducah grocers were selling impure food and that his inspectors would follow him visit here, investigate and prosecute. He stated, however, that the inspector will give merchants every opportunity to rid themselves of their present stock of goods.

Mr. Allen left for his home in Lexington at 1:25 o'clock this morning. He will shortly go to Washington to assist in organizing the "People's Lobby" bureau. The purpose of such a bureau is to secure pure food legislation and to weed out professional trust lobbyists.

The Value of Dandelion

We want you to try at our expense what Dr. Edward's Dandelion Tablets are. Pills will do for the cure of your particular form of sickness, so we offer you a full package free of cost. We do this because it is the right way -- the only fair way -- to convince you that these remedies will positively do all that is claimed for them. We are satisfied of their genuineness, because we spent thousands of dollars for the privilege of putting them on the market. We possess indisputable proof that they have cured thousands of sick folk -- that they will cure you also if you will only try them at our expense. Our offer places you under no obligation whatever, because we pay for every trial package that is given away. All you have to do is to cut out the coupon and present it at the drug store named below.

What Dandelion Tablets and Pills Are.

Everybody knows that Dandelion is the most valuable of all Nature's remedies. Well, Dr. Edward's Tablets and Pills are simply common dandelion (Taraxicum) in a concentrated form combined with other harmless ingredients of purely vegetable matter. They are one of the very few proprietary medicines endorsed by the medical profession. If your physician desires to know what these preparations contain, have him write us and we will gladly send him the information together with the name of the expert chemist who superintends their manufacture.

Diseases Cured by Dandelion Tablets and Pills.

Constipation

In constipation the tablets act as a mild cathartic; the Pills are slightly stronger, but both tablets and pills act upon the mucous membranes of the intestines, therefore their action is absolutely sure and also for this reason they never gripe or cause the least discomfort. They are equally good for children as well as adults, because they are a tonic and do not produce any unnatural condition of the matter.

Liver Trouble

Through their direct and immediate action upon the liver Dr. Edward's Dandelion Tablets and Pills induce a natural flow of bile. This relieves the congested condition of the liver and enables it to perform its important work of keeping the bowels and stomach in a healthy condition.

Nervous Trouble

It is well to remember that disordered nerves are nearly always caused by a disordered stomach. We do not make a specialty of nervous troubles unless they are caused by stomach trouble -- then we cure them permanently.

Stomach Trouble

The Tablets are the best to use in cases of Stomach Trouble which take the form of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc., because they tone up the system and stimulate the flow of gastric juice, thus very effectively aiding the digestive organs to perform their proper functions. Their mildly cathartic action also relieves the stomach of all refuse and undigested matter.

Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism.

All Kidney trouble and nearly every case of Rheumatism is due to the presence of uric acid in the blood. Dr. Edward's Dandelion Pills through their direct action upon the Liver and Kidneys restore these organs to a sound and healthy condition. The uric acid then passes away through the natural channel and the blood becomes pure again and free from all poisonous matter.

We only guarantee to cure Rheumatism when it is caused by the presence of uric acid in the blood. We have cured hundreds of cases because this is usually the cause of rheumatic affections.

Boston Mass., April 13.

To SCHENCK CHEMICAL CO.

Gentlemen:

I have tried many kinds of remedies for constipation but have never found anything that gives such quick and pleasant relief as your Dandelion Pills. Your Dandelion Tablets have proven an excellent regulator for the stomach, both for my wife and myself.

Now that I have found the Dandelion remedy in a more condensed form will save me the trouble of going into the fields and digging up the dandelion plant and preparing it myself. I soon as the boxes are empty shall send for more unless you advise me at which drug store I may get them in Boston.

You may say that this word of recommendation is NOT a paid letter as many of them are for advertised medicines.

Signed, A. H. SANBORN
